Traditional Practices and Indigenous Support Systems Before the advent of formal guidance and counselling, African societies relied heavily on indigenous support mechanisms rooted in their cultural and spiritual beliefs.

- Community-Based Support: Elders, spiritual leaders, and family members played pivotal roles in providing counsel, guidance, and conflict resolution within communities.
- Rites of Passage: Ceremonies such as initiation rites served as transitional guidance for youths entering adulthood, imparting moral values, societal roles, and life skills.
- Oral Traditions and Storytelling: Knowledge transfer through stories, proverbs, and songs often contained lessons on behaviour, decision-making, and social norms.
- Traditional Healers: Spiritual healers and diviners offered guidance on health, spiritual matters, and interpersonal issues, blending customary beliefs with practical advice. These traditional support systems were holistic, integrating spiritual, social, and psychological dimensions, emphasizing communal harmony over individualism.
